

ORCID:

orcid.org/0000-0002-3535-1068

annika.nivala@labour.fi

Nationality: Finnish

Profile

Currently a senior researcher at Labour Institute for Economic Research. Additionally, a PhD student at the University of Turku with research projects with VATT Institute For Economic Research. My research focuses on the effects of taxation on firm behavior, especially firm tax compliance and employment subsidies. My main interests in economics are in the field of public economics, and its intersection with labor, welfare, and behavioral economics.

Academic Record

- 2017 Jan– Doctor of Social Sciences at University of Turku, Turku School of Economics
Major Economics
Ongoing, planned graduation in beginning of 2021
- 2016 April 18th Master of Social Sciences at University of Turku, Turku School of Economics
Major Economics, Specialisation in Quantitative Economics
- 2015 May 29th Master of Social Sciences at University of Turku, Faculty of Social Sciences
Major Philosophy
- 2015 Feb 2nd Bachelor of Social Sciences at University of Turku, Turku School of Economics
Major Economics
- 2012 Nov 21st Bachelor of Social Sciences at University of Turku, Faculty of Social Sciences
Major Philosophy

Current Position

- 2020 Sep– SENIOR RESEARCHER, LABOUR INSTITUTE FOR ECONOMIC RESEARCH (PALKANSAAJIEN TUTKIMUSLAITOS)
Labour market and education research group

Previous work experience

- 2020 May–2020 July ASSISTANT RESEARCHER, VATT Institute for Economic Research
Part-time 50%, in the theme Business regulation and international economics
- 2016 March–2020 Aug DOCTORAL STUDENT, University of Turku, Turku School of Economics, Department of Economics
In field of public economics; firm taxation and tax compliance
Advisors: Janne Tukiainen, Kaisa Kotakorpi (University of Tampere)
- 2018 Jan–April VISITING DOCTORAL STUDENT, London School of Economics and Political Science, STI-CERD
- 2015 Sep–2016 Feb RESEARCH ASSISTANT, University of Turku, Turku School of Economics, Department of Economics
Part-time 20%

2015 May–Aug TRAINEE, VATT Institute for Economic Research

2014–2015 RESEARCH AND TEACHING ASSISTANT, University of Turku, Turku School of Economics,
Department of Economics
Part-time 10%

Language Skills

MOTHER TONGUE: Finnish
FLUENT: English
GOOD: Swedish
BASICS: Spanish, German

Research funding and Grants

- 2017, Yrjö Jahnsson Foundation: 8,000 euros to fund PhD research visit abroad; 2017, TOP Foundation: 4,500 euros to fund PhD research visit abroad; 2017, Turun Kauppaseuran säätiö: 1,500 euros to fund PhD research visit abroad,
- 2020 Turku University Foundation: 800 euros travel grant

Teaching experience

- Advanced econometrics, advanced level, teaching assistant for Janne Tukiainen, spring 2020
- Bachelor's thesis supervision, intermediate level, spring 2019
- Seminar on public economics, intermediate level, fall 2017

Publications

- "Effects of Subsidizing the First Employee - Evidence From Finland", 2017, Background report for Economic Policy Council Report 2016

Other experience

- 2020 member of Committee for Research and Doctoral Studies (TuJa) at Turku School of Economics, University of Turku
- 2020 3 Minute Thesis Finalist at the University of Turku, "Subsidizing the first employee to encourage job creation?"